Part 1

Bobo brought a bubble wand to the playground. He blew one bubble, then another, then ten more. The bubbles floated over his head.

Part 2

Mimi and Gus came to play. “May I try?” asked Mimi. “After me,” said Bobo. But Bobo kept blowing bubbles.

Part 3

The bubbles were pretty, but Mimi and Gus were no longer smiling. Bobo looked at their quiet faces. Playing alone did not feel as fun as he expected.

Part 4

Bobo took a breath. “I have had many turns,” he said. “Mimi, would you like the next turn?” He held out the wand carefully.

Part 5

Mimi blew three tiny bubbles. Gus popped them with his nose. Everyone giggled. Then Mimi passed the wand to Gus.

Part 6

Gus made one enormous bubble. It wobbled like jelly before it popped over Bobo’s head. Bobo laughed the loudest.

Part 7

The friends made a simple rule: one friend blows, one friend counts, and one friend pops. Then they switch.

Part 8

Bobo learned that taking turns did not take fun away. It made enough fun for everyone.
