COMPLETE STORY + QUIZ

Finn Fox and the Snowy Window

Finn Fox and the Snowy Window | Suggested ages 3-4

Finn wants to run into the new snow, but it is bedtime. He watches from the warm window, draws three shapes in the fog, and saves the outdoor adventure for morning.

Read, talk, and discover

The complete story is followed by questions and a separate answer guide. Read aloud together, pause to talk, and take your time.

Print on US Letter at actual size, or choose Fit for A4. Use single-sided printing for activity cards. Black-and-white printing is suitable.

Part 1

Evening had come. The story began in a warm den during a quiet snowfall. Snow begins to fall outside Finn's den. The evening felt soft and quiet around them.

Part 2

Finn presses his nose near the warm window. That gentle moment helped everything feel ready for rest.

Part 3

His breath makes a patch of fog. There was no need to rush, so the little friend moved slowly.

Part 4

He draws a circle, a star, and a heart. The calm sound made everything feel safe and cozy.

Part 5

Finn plans to explore after breakfast. Soon, the busy part of the day was almost done.

Part 6

He closes the curtain and curls into bed. With one last peaceful step, bedtime was near.

Part 7

Finn felt peaceful and ready to rest. The little adventure helped Finn learn about enjoying a calm moment indoors. Good night, Finn.
