Intro

Wind blew leaves across the ground.
Wally saw them all around.

Verse 1

Flowers bent and soil was dry.
Wally pushed each leaf nearby.
The big garden, Wally small,
He could not repair it all.

Chorus

Ask for help, a friend may say,
"We can share this job today."
Big work turns to happy play
When kind helpers join the day.

Verse 2

Wally thought, "Good gardeners cope."
Bea Bee saw him lose his hope.
"This is much too big," he said.
"Friends can help," Bea smiled instead.

Bea moved leaves; Dot worked the ground.
Wally made neat rows around.
Seeds went in, then soil, then rain.
Three friends helped the garden gain.

Final Chorus

Ask for help, a friend may say,
"We can share this job today."
Before lunch their work was through.
Wally was a good friend too.

Outro

Three green sprouts soon came in view.
All three cheered for what they grew.
