COMPLETE STORY + QUIZ

Nora Says Stop

Nora Says Stop | Suggested ages 3-4

Nora dislikes a tickling game and learns to use a clear voice while her friend learns to listen.

Read, talk, and discover

The complete story is followed by questions and a separate answer guide. Read aloud together, pause to talk, and take your time.

Print on US Letter at actual size, or choose Fit for A4. Use single-sided printing for activity cards. Black-and-white printing is suitable.

Part 1

Nora the robin and Benny the blue bird played a silly feather game beneath the garden tree after snack.

Part 2

Benny tickled Nora's wing with a soft feather. Nora laughed once, but soon the tickles stopped feeling fun.

Part 3

Nora moved back and said quietly, "Please stop." Benny was laughing and did not hear her small voice.

Part 4

Nora planted both feet and held one wing forward. She said clearly, "Stop. I do not want tickles now."

Part 5

Benny stopped at once and put the feather down. He said, "I hear you. I am sorry I missed your words."

Part 6

Nora's body relaxed. She offered a different game where they tossed the feather through a round flower hoop.

Part 7

Benny asked before each turn, and Nora answered yes or no. Both friends enjoyed the new game together.

Part 8

Nora felt strong using a clear stop, and her first quiet stop mattered too. Benny showed care by listening, stopping, and choosing a welcome game.
