Intro

On a window white with frost,

Round clear spots and curves were crossed.

Verse 1

Snow outside lay smooth and neat,

So the clues formed near the heat.

Warm breath made a circle clear.

Thin curved lines were different here.

Chorus

Shape and place and watch again.

Compare the marks upon the pane.

One warm nose and whiskers thin

Tell us who has just looked in.

Keep the rhyme going

Verse 2

A soft cat jumped to the sill,
Watching birds and sitting still.
Nose made spots; each whisker drew
Curving lines across the view.

Final Chorus

Two clue columns made it plain.
One small cat had marked the pane.
Set a cushion warm and bright -
Mystery solved by morning light.
